

Chicago

People from the South Bronx and RCYB members in front of the banner made by residents after the police raid before NDP.

Los Angeles.

Get Organized
For

OCTOBER 22ND

THE NATIONAL DAY OF PROTEST TO STOP POLICE BRUTALITY

Sonya Masseur

Alejandro Campos Rios

Elijah Hadley

Jimmy Lopez

HOW MANY MORE?!

Hugo Cachua

daretostruggle.org

It's been ten years since the Ferguson rebellion, and the police continue to kill Black and other oppressed people with impunity. A few killer cops have faced charges, trial, and prison time, but most of these murderers with a badge get away with their crimes. The police keep serving and protecting white supremacy and capitalism, and in that role, they are sanctioned to brutalize and kill.

OVER 1,200 PEOPLE WERE KILLED BY POLICE NATIONWIDE IN 2023.

The police respond to people in a mental health crisis with taser guns and bullets. In response to rising homelessness, homeless people are being criminalized, with police carrying out brutal raids on encampments. On reservations & in border towns, police murder Indigenous people at disturbing rates. And protestors have faced brutal repression from militarized police, including those opposing the construction of the Cop City police training facility in Atlanta, along with the college student encampments opposing the US-Israel genocidal war on Gaza.

WHY HAVEN'T WAVES OF PROTESTS AGAINST POLICE BRUTALITY CHANGED THIS STATE OF AFFAIRS?

Because the protest movement has been derailed time after time by politicians promising reforms and grifters using the movement for their personal gain. Justice Department investigations, legislation, police review boards, and other reforms cannot end police brutality because it's baked into the system that government on all levels serves. It's a fundamental tool, alongside mass incarceration, to keep oppressed people controlled and subjugated.

On top of this, grifters from the Black Lives Matter organization to Robin DiAngelo, Shaun King, and Ibram X Kendi have anointed themselves the spokespeople of the movement and collected hundreds of millions of dollars in donations, corporate sponsorships, and book deals while serving themselves rather than the masses of people subjected to police brutality. (Look up the interview of Samaria Rice, the mother of Tamir Rice, in New York Magazine to see what we're talking about.)

This Fall, Dare To Struggle is working to rebuild the movement against police brutality & the oppression of Black people on solid foundations.

Join us for protests on October 22nd, the national day of protest against police brutality

The movement we're seeking to build will put the families and loved ones of the victims of police murder at the forefront, reviving a powerful weapon against police brutality.

We will work to mobilize the youth under the gun of police brutality to stand up and speak for themselves. We will unite all who can be united in this struggle, regardless of identity. And we will reject begging for reforms in favor of mass action, outside the official political channels, to exert the just demands of the masses. Grifters and lawyers looking to cash in on grief will be exposed and removed.

SEND KILLER COPS TO PRISON!

END THE CRIMINALIZATION OF BLACK, LATINO, AND INDIGENOUS YOUTH!

NO MORE MURDERS AND BRUTALITY BY THE POLICE!

END THE CRIMINALIZATION OF HOMELESSNESS AND MENTAL ILLNESS!

NO MORE MILITARIZED POLICE REPRESSION OF PROTEST!

DARE TO STRUGGLE

