

FREE THE PRAIRIELAND DEFENDANTS!

PROTESTING ICE IS NEVER A CRIME

DARE TO STRUGGLE

On July 4, a protest outside the Prairieland Detention Center in Texas led to a government investigation and attack on protesters. 19 defendants now face criminal charges.

The supposed crimes of the Prairieland Defendants include deleting messages, removing people from group chats, and transporting political literature. A Dallas teacher was arrested and had his bail set at $1 million after surveillance technology flagged “concerning internet history.” Defendants have been labeled “domestic terrorists” part of an “Antifa cell.” They have spent months in inhumane conditions in pre-trial detention, with no end in sight due to bonds set at millions of dollars.

This case is not about a police officer’s supposed injury from the July 4 protest—it’s about stopping people from First Amendment-protected protest and free expression against ICE in the midst of their terroristic assault on immigrants and protesters around the country.

We can't let the Prairieland Defendants get locked up.

Now is the time to turn up the heat for the Prairieland Defendants and the thousands of people currently imprisoned in detention facilities.
