

8,000+ LIVES SINCE 2020, AND THOUSANDS MORE TO COME UNLESS WE STOP THE KILLINGS

Six years ago today, on May 25, 2020, people across the country witnessed the public execution of 46-year-old George Floyd by arch-pig Derek Chauvin in Minneapolis, Minnesota. For over 9 min, Chauvin knelt on Floyd's neck, ignoring desperate cries that he could not breathe until Floyd's body finally went limp.

In the immediate aftermath of Floyd's murder, Black and working-class neighborhoods erupted in militant protest. Floyd's death represents years of police killings, poverty, and violence that had been allowed to fester in their neighborhoods by the ruling class.

It was this widespread unrest and the unwillingness of the masses to leave the streets that struck fear into the hearts of the ruling class, ensuring that within a few months, the people won a victory: Chauvin was sent to prison for Floyd's murder, where he remains. crisis.

But six years since Floyd's murder, since the people rebelled and won a victory against police brutality, police killings have continued and increased at alarming rates.

8,129 people's lives have been stolen by police since the 2020 rebellion for George Floyd. Thousands of fathers, mothers, brothers, sisters, sons, daughters, spouses, and friends were taken from their loved ones.

PEOPLE LIKE TIMOTHY GLAZE.

On January 3, 2025, a terminally ill Timothy was shot 16 times by CPD officers Alejandro Urbano Mateo and Salah Saleh while experiencing a mental health crisis. Last month, the Cook County State's Attorney's office claimed that because Timothy walked toward the pigs with a knife in hand, they were justified in shooting him 16 times.

Four body armor-wearing, taser, baton, and pepper spray-carrying agents of the state could not do anything besides gun down a 137-pound, cancer-ridden Timothy Glaze. Nothing about Timothy's murder was justified.

If 2020 taught us anything, it's that rebellion is what got Derek Chauvin convicted and locked up. Not peaceful protests, a lawsuit, reforms, or the word of a politician. But to go beyond locking up just one killer cop, we need a mass movement against the whole system that allows these killings to continue.

It's time to take action! Speak-out against Timothy's ruling and expose the epidemic of police brutality and its countless victims. Join Dare to Struggle and FDJ to get organized against police brutality through O22.

A man with bright blue spiky hair is the central focus, looking directly at the camera with a slight smile. He is wearing a dark jacket over a black t-shirt. Behind him is a large, dense crowd of people at a protest. Several signs are visible, including one that says "END POLICE BRUTALITY" and another that says "BLACK LIVES MATTER". The background is slightly blurred, emphasizing the man in the foreground.
